

Terms & conditions

Rates and payments

Prices are set by TradeWinds AS and displayed on the website and in the newspaper. We reserve the right to increase our subscription rates. Subscription rate increases are notified via the newspaper. Prices quoted include the paper copy and online access depending on your subscription level, as well as delivery charges. Local taxes may apply.

Payments are accepted by bank transfer or credit/debit card. We accept Visa, MasterCard or American Express. Bank details are provided on all our invoices, and a credit card form is available on page two of our invoices. We do not accept cheques. The subscriber may continue to receive reminders from TradeWinds until payment has been received.

Credit terms

Credit terms are 28 days from date of invoice. All invoices are sent out up to two months in advance prior to renewal or any new subscriptions setup at the next available date.

Subscription terms

All TradeWinds subscriptions are available on a yearly basis. All subscriptions are automatically renewed, unless we are advised otherwise.

As a subscriber you will receive letters and emails from TradeWinds. The content of the communication will be service messages, offers and newsletters with useful information regarding the subscription and TradeWinds products. TradeWinds will treat contact details with confidentiality and not share details with any third party supplier.

TradeWinds reserves the right to make changes in the product as well as terms and conditions. Major changes will be notified in the paper and/or via email.

Login details

Login details are sent to the subscriber only, unless prior permission has been given for login details and passwords to be forwarded to a trusted individual. Your login is your email address. If you forget any of these details, please contact us via My TradeWinds or select "Forgot your password" on the login page. Otherwise, please contact your nearest office or Customer Services.

Number of licences

Please note that the number of licenses (or accesses) to www.tradewindsnews.com is limited to the number of subscriptions on your account and can only be used on a single device at any one time. Your username and password are personal to you and may not be shared by anyone else when you have a single user license.

VAT

VAT may be charged according to local regulations. 25% VAT applies to digital subscriptions in Norway and UK, and TradeWinds may charge this to a portion of the subscription fee to cover the online content.

Discounts

TradeWinds does not offer discounts on subscriptions. Students and retired professionals may qualify for a discount, subject to valid status documentation. Please contact your nearest sales office regarding this. TradeWinds offers volume corporate agreements tailored to each customers' needs, please inquire further about this with your sales representative.

Subscription amendments

For any changes to your subscription, please contact us through My TradeWinds, email sales@tradewindsnews.com or contact your nearest sales office.

Invoice copies

If you require an invoice copy, please email accounts@tradewindsnews.com or contact your local sales office.

Basic, Premium and Digital subscriptions

A Basic subscription consists of the paper copy of the newspaper and magazine, with online access to the previous 14 days' worth of articles. A Premium subscription is an upgrade from the Basic, which includes the archived material and gives subscribers access to any previous content since the launch of TradeWinds in 1990. A Digital subscription gives online only access to the same.

Delivery

TradeWinds is distributed via first class mail, and subject to deadlines stated by the individual mail service companies globally. In many central shipping locations we offer hand delivery. If you do not receive your newspaper copy, please contact your local sales office as soon as possible.

New subscriptions and changes to distribution details can be received up until Wednesday morning at 10am GMT for that week's Friday issue. TradeWinds is printed in the UK, and distribution is dependent on your location.

Cancellation

All subscriptions are renewed unless notice is given. Cancellation is always required in writing either by letter or email. If a cancellation is received after the renewal date, a balance invoice will be payable for the period used. We reserve the right to terminate the subscription at any time, due to lack of payment.

Copyright policy/use of editorial content
